New York State Art Teachers Association ♦ June 2014

Dear NYSATA members,

Spring has sprung! After what I believe was the longest winter ever I am glad to be seeing and listening to the sights and sounds of spring! There is always a big sigh of relief as I finish my spring art shows and can finally start passing back student artwork. The art room will slowly get cleaned and organized and before I know it my students have grown another year older and wiser! I have been getting wiser too! I have been attending several workshops on technology, apps and programs to make life and teaching easier. There are a few sneak peeks in this newsletter but keep your eyes open for a future workshop or two! As always, we are putting together a few summer workshops so be on the lookout for Region emails alerting you to workshops and gatherings! If you have an event to share, a workshop idea or would like to share some of your expertise let me know! We can always use more ideas so send them to nysata3@gmail.com.

As a reminder, please turn in your YAM documentation to Donnalyn Shuster d_shuster@yahoo.com Check out www.nysata.org/youth-art-month for more info on how submit. Now would be a great time to start planning for a Youth Art Month 2015 event!

Region Elections will be open for voting soon.

Artfully Yours,

Michele Gorham

A Few Of Our Favorite Things....

Tech it out!

www.canva.com

This neat and easy to use website create posters, presentations and graphics with just a few clicks and it is free! Select premade templates and type in your own text, or upload your own photographs. This is a simple introduction to graphic design for your students or for your personal use (you can create custom headers for social media here as well!). Check out our new Facebook header and a quick review over on my blog www.creativecornerny.blogspot.com

www.screencast-o-matic.com

I just started working with this program and can see its massive potential in the art room! Basically, you can record anything you do on a computer both visuals and audio (with a microphone). If you are demonstrating a technique on a Smartboard, playing a PowerPoint, showing a you tube video, you can use this website to capture the parts/sound you want and make your own video. I can see this completely reinventing my sub plans!

ShowMe-

Similar to screencast-o-matic, you can use this app to draw and record your voice to make a video. You can't leave the app, but you can use this like a whiteboard to demonstrate simple drawing techniques.

Desert Divas: Influential Women Artists and Patrons of the Southwest

Santa Fe and Taos, New Mexico

July 3-10, 2014 • 7 Days • 9 Meals

The stunning New Mexico landscape has attracted artists and patrons to the Santa Fe and Taos regions for years, including many remarkable women—both past and present. From the spectacular black pottery of Maria Martinez and the paintings of Pablita Velarde to the brilliant canvasses of Georgia O'Keeffe, the contemporary sculptures of Roxanne Swentzell, and the mixed-media of Marion Martinez, their works have had a profound impact on the art world. Other innovative women such as Mabel Dodge Luhan, Millicent Rogers, and Mary Cabot Wheelwright were also at the artistic forefront, creating a living legacy in the arts through their patronage and museum development. Join Stevie Mack from CRIZMAC and Nancy Walkup from SchoolArts Magazine on this extraordinary trip. Explore the fascinating lives and legacies of these "desert divas" and become immersed in artistic brilliance!
